George Polimenakos to Speak Tuesday, February 18, at 6 PM, in Room 1013

George Polimenakos graduated from the Adventure Sports Institute at Garrett College in May of 2016. Since then, he has been traveling and living abroad, using the skills he's learned to keep an active yet simplistic life in nature. Hear George's full story on February 18th, 2020 while he shares pictures, video, and stories of his experience and how ASI has prepared him with the proper skill set to take on this journey around the globe. Now living full time in Greece, he has visited 12 countries in the past few years, focusing on sharing his love for the outdoors with everyone he meets!
