These three ladies made their way to the 1st ever AEE & AORE combined conference located in Spokane, Washington. They attended many seminars on a variety of topics from Military Recreation to Mitigating Heuristics. The trip was a major lesson on flexibility and adapting to ever changing plans.

Come and hear them, as they speak on their experiences during the conference.